

PETRO-CANADA SPORT LEADERSHIP SPORTIF VANCOUVER 2009

NOVEMBER 12-15, 2009 • DU 12 AU 15 NOVEMBRE 2009 • SHERATON VANCOUVER WALL CENTRE

Craven, Bruce (MSc.)

Bruce has his MSc., BSc. (PT), BSPE, Dip Sport (PT) and is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS). He is co-owner of Craven Sport Services, is an Associate Clinical Professor School of Physical Therapy U of S, is a Sessional Lecturer College of Kinesiology U of S, and is a member of the Canadian Sport Centre's National Sport Science and Medicine Advisory Committee. Bruce has 18 years experience working with sport programming in over 40 different sports, with athletes competing at provincial, national, international and Olympic/Paralympics competitions. Bruce has worked and/or is working with athletes competing in the National Hockey League, Canadian Football League, Professional Volleyball Leagues in Europe, Professional Basketball Leagues in Europe, Professional Soccer Leagues in Canada, Professional Hockey Leagues in Europe, and Professional Hockey Leagues in North America. As a Sport Physiotherapist he has worked at international competitions with Canadian National Figure Skating Team, Canadian National Sailing Team, Canadian Hockey Association and the Canadian Blind Sport - National Goalball Team. In addition, he has worked with corporate athletes in the financial/business profession and the mining profession.

